

Move Together

Community Movement Classes @ PBT

Experience for yourself the richness of ballet and movement in these FREE "Move Together" classes for the community. Open to patrons of all ages and abilities, this hour-long movement class will introduce you to basic ballet moves and production-specific choreography designed to enhance your experience of each production. The movement class will be led by the Director of Education, Alyssa Herzog Melby.

Participants: Please wear comfortable clothing and bring water! Participants under the age of 15 must be accompanied by an adult.
