PITTSBURGH BALLET THEATRE
PNC Presents

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

MEET THE CHARACTERS

Sensory-friendly Performance
Sunday | February 23, 2020 | 4:30 p.m.
Benedum Center for the Performing Arts
Pittsburgh
BEAUTY

BEAUTY'S FATHER
STAG  LIVING STATUES  FOREST CREATURES
BLUEBIRDS

SIMIANS

DANCING ROSES
The Beast and the Prince are the same character—just in different costumes!
Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre Sensory-Friendly Performances

PBT began sensory-friendly performances during the 2013-2014 season to create a welcoming environment for people of all abilities and their families to enjoy the beauty, splendor, and excitement of a live ballet performance.

Beauty and the Beast is generously sponsored by

![PNC Bank Logo]

Presented in partnership with the Pittsburgh Cultural Trust

---

CREDITS

Photos

Rich Sofranko

Artists

Cover: Amanda Cochrane, Nurlan Abougliev, and Artists of the Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre and School

Beauty: Amanda Cochrane; Beauty’s Father: Joseph Parr

Stag and Living Statues: Artists of the Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre and School

Forest Creatures: Artists of Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre and School

Bluebirds: Diana Yohe, Gabrielle Thurlow

Simians: Masahiro Haneji and Artists of Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre School

Dancing Roses: Artists of the Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre and School

Beast and Prince: Alejandro Diaz